Dear Mrs. Hill,
You have been one of the most wonderful teachers
I have ever known. It is one great pleasure to meet such a person in life. You have been an uplift in my school life. I only wish you taught another subject since I'm finding it so interesting. Here is to your success and happiness

MIRROR

Dear Mrs. Hill,

How can I begin to tell you how wonderful I think you are. You've been so good and kind to me this year I couldn't thank you enough. No wonder you're so popular with all the men — you're so full of pep and energy and life — nobody could help but like you. I've never thought of you as a teacher — you're just not like one. Oh — heck — I can't tell you how much I like you and think of you. All I can say is whoever the lucky man is that gets you — really has something. (Here's pulling for Bill)

I wish you lots of happiness, Mrs. Hill, and thanks a million.

Love,

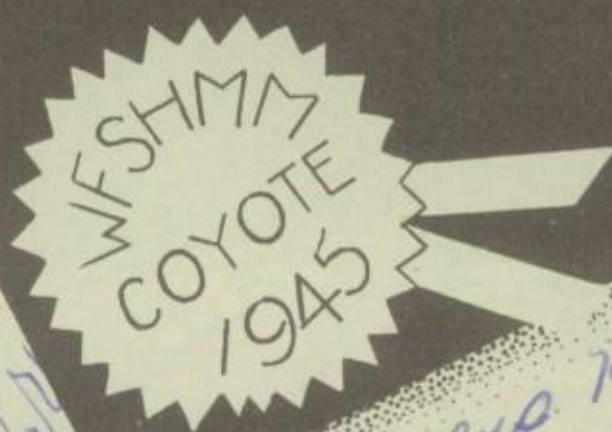

Carolyn Cooke

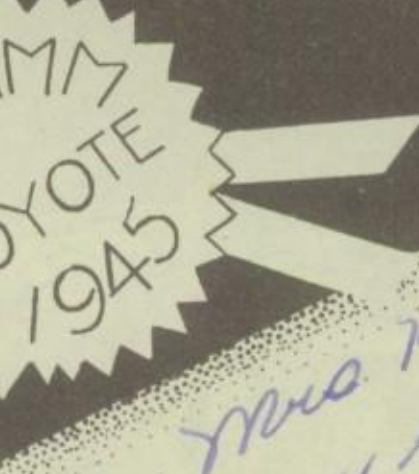

Dear Mrs. Hill,

I don't ^{know} how to tell you how wonderful I think you are. I don't regard you as a teacher, but as a good friend! You are so full of pep, and have such a wonderful personality no one could help but like you!

Lots of love,
Patsy Jones

HOMEMAKING

Courses in distributive education have a unique appeal to the students. The school-day is divided into a study period and a sales period, the latter being spent in a downtown store or office.

Homemaking classes should be particularly appealing to girls who are looking to the post-war world, where home design and management will be a pleasure.

Boys in this department are preparing themselves to meet the present war-time emergency and the requirements of the post-war peace which will follow.

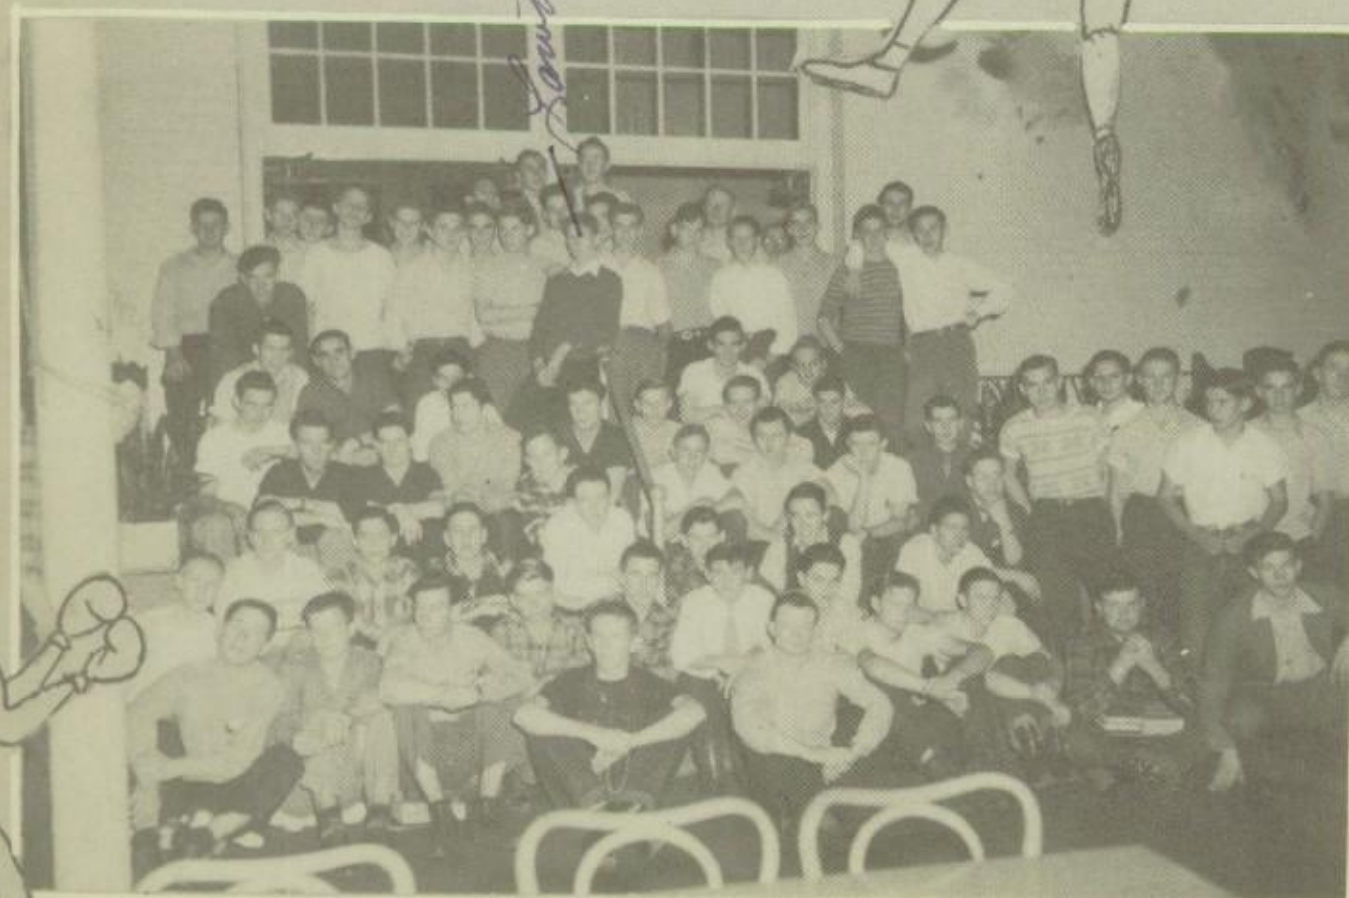

The purpose of the Girls' PE Leaders' Club, which is three fold, is to develop leadership, sportsmanship and skills for recreation. These squad leaders must be dependable, patient, neat, friendly, and capable leaders.

So, none other than, my dear Mrs. Hill, who is now ridding her self of a big bad pill ^(me),
I dedicate this sorry poem
so let her know a little I did learn
In our past days of happiness & tears she solved enough (man) problems to last us for years
There was the time when you were not
But to a great disappointment, I gave mine
the gift
Another proved to me almost drastic

CORRIDOR ASSISTANTS

A group of assistants, chosen for their willingness to assist in handling and controlling other students, make up the corridor club. Individual problems and those pertaining to the entire group are discussed in open meetings before rules are formulated. The corridor group assist in passing periods and at the lunch hour in the halls and in front of the building. Teachers are relieved of many disciplinary problems as a result of the efficient working system of this group.

BOOKAMONTH CLUB

The Bookamonth Club was formed in 1944 for the purpose of stimulating in the students an interest in reading good books. The members read and exchange the various books at each meeting. Having had an enthusiastic membership this year, this club holds promise for continued support and future activities.

HI-Y

Working in conjunction with the city Hi-Y organization, the WFSH Hi-Y's have held their meetings at night downtown. The purpose of the organization—that of maintaining and extending to the students standards of higher Christian character—has been the objective of the members of this group. The boys have also worked in co-ordination with other local groups for the purpose of obtaining a permanent YMCA building.

CHECKING GROUP

This efficient group has for its objective, accuracy in checking names, cards, and files. Efficiency marks the work of the checking students. To fill the membership, therefore, much care is exercised that students are chosen who reflect credit to the school.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Chosen from the upper ten percent of the junior class, the number of these seniors is necessarily limited. Additional members who receive the honor in the latter part of their senior year are also entitled to keys or pins. Students who are entitled to membership in this organization obtain this coveted honor as a result of their high scholastic standing and the recommendations of their teachers.

STUDENT SPONSORS

Student Sponsors are a selected group of senior students who welcome all newcomers into WFSH. This organization, under the leadership of Miss Helen Grace Gould, helps with the school life and its rules. It is each student sponsor's duty to be dependable, courteous, and cheerful in all phases of school activity.

PAN-AMERICAN STUDENT FORUM

The Pan-American Student Forum was organized to study the problems of Latin American countries and try to promote good feeling between those countries and the United States. Believing that there must exist a closer union with our neighbors to the south, members of this organization have studied post-war situations with the hope of promoting a better understanding among the Americas.

COACH T. L. JONES

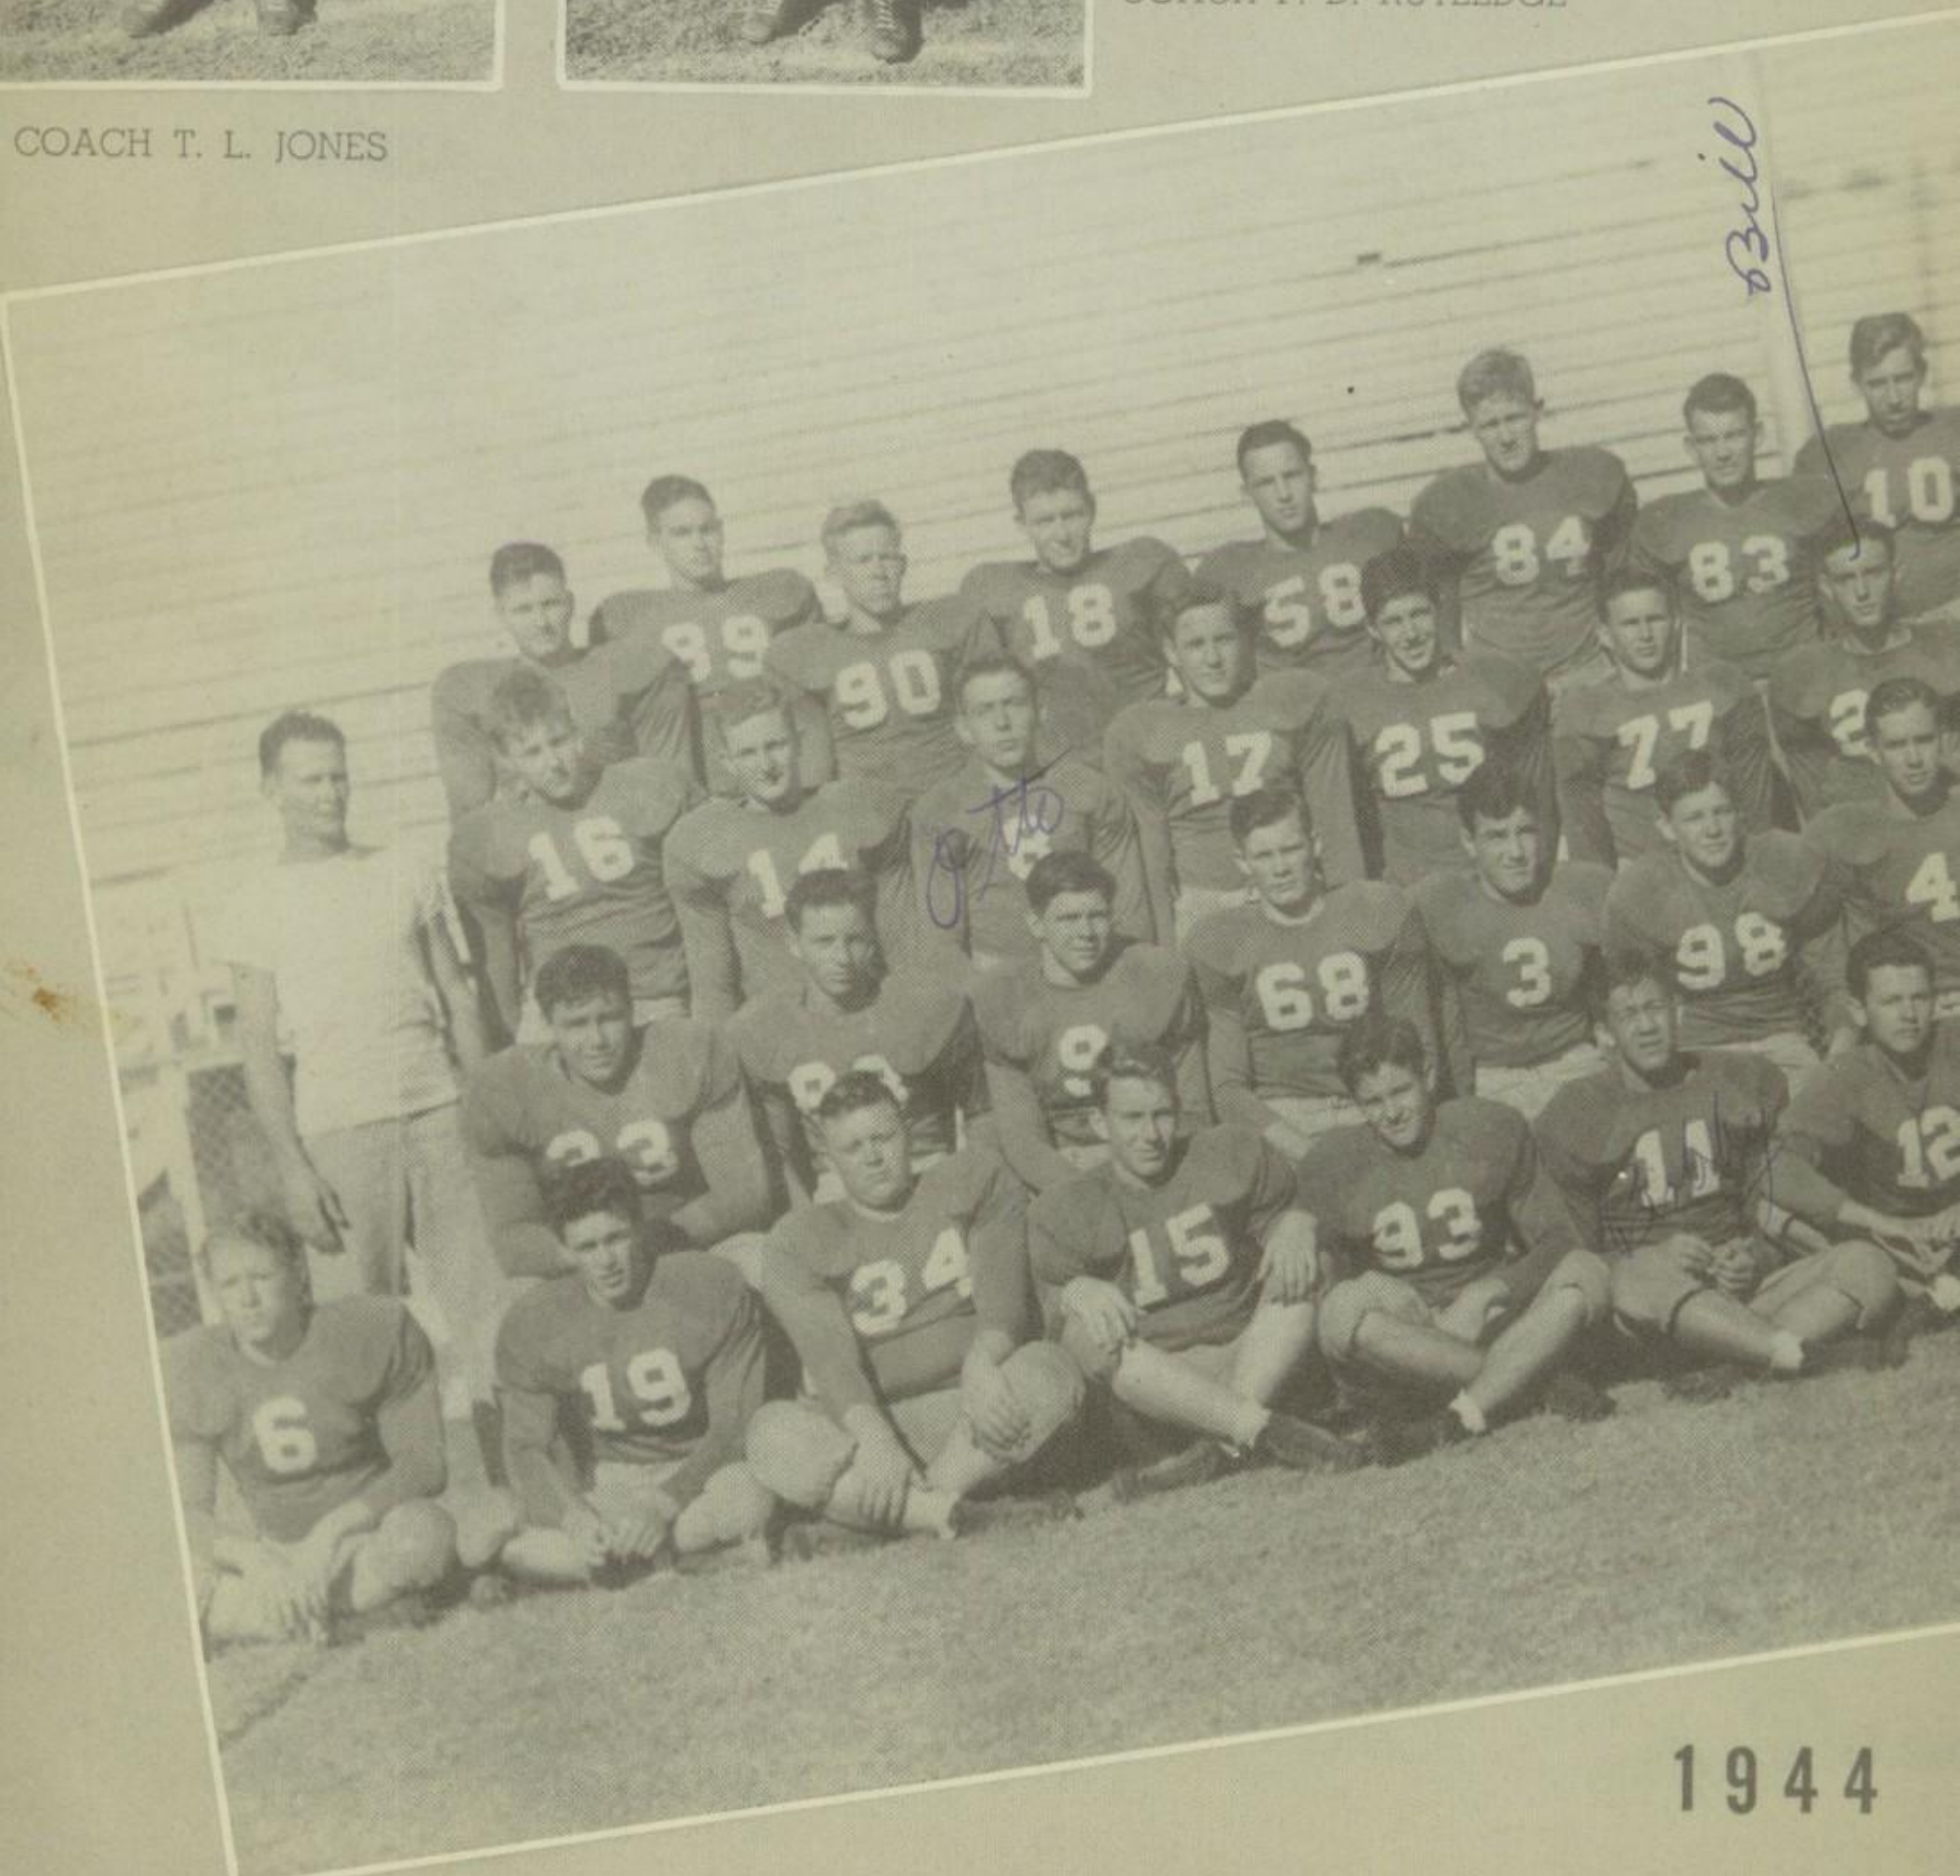

COACH F. D. RUTLEDGE

THE COACHES

During his first season with the Wichita Falls Coyotes, Coach T. L. "Tugboat" Jones produced an outstanding squad. Despite many handicaps, Coach Jones led his team to the district championship. His proved knowledge of football, as well as his knack of handling players, accounts for his success.

Another addition to our coaching staff this year is Coach F. D. "Red" Rutledge. As line coach he was responsible for a large part of the team's victories. He was very popular among the players because of his friendly attitude.

OYOTES

WILLIE
BIGHAM

Willie, the largest man on the team this year, was outstanding in the position of tackle. He will return next season.

COYOTES VS GRAHAM

BOB HAMES

As a tackle, Bob used his speed and weight to stop many of the opponents' plays. His aggressiveness placed him on the All-District team.

AUGUST PELZ

As a member of the Coyote backfield, August's passing and running were outstanding. His all-round ability made him invaluable to the team.

LINDY BERRY

Being one of the fastest men on the team and a most dependable quarterback, Lindy really earned his place on the All-District this year.

BILL INGRAM

Bill was a reserve end, playing his final year for the Coyotes. Although his service was limited, he held up the Coyote standard at all times he was in the game.

COYOTES VS QUANAH

DICK HARRIS

Dick's exceptional playing at center this year gained for him a place on the All-State team.

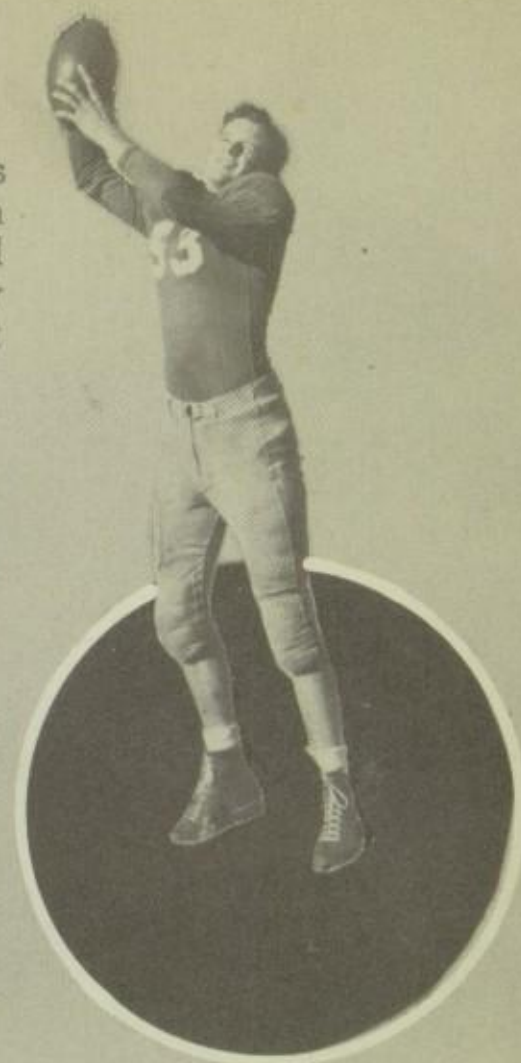

In addition to this honor, he was captain of the pack, most outstanding player in district 2AA, and a valuable member of the All-District team.

CHARLES BLANTON

As a reserve end, Charles did not see much action this season. His speed and aggressiveness will surely prove an asset to next year's Coyotes.

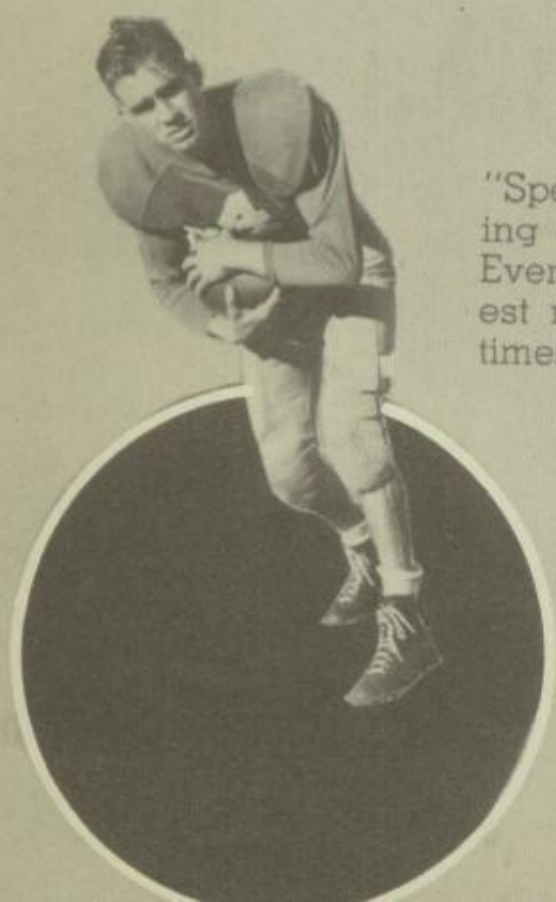

HERMAN BALCH

Playing his final year on the Coyotes, "Hag-meat" turned in an outstanding record at guard. His superb blocking and aggressive charging awarded him a berth on the All-District eleven.

ROBERT RAY

"Leadleg" was one of the four talented centers. An old leg injury retarded his action on the team, even though he maintained a fine quality of play when he was in the game.

PAT McCULLOUGH

"Speedy" was a reserve back, playing his final year on the Coyotes. Even though he was one of the lightest men, he showed up well at all times.

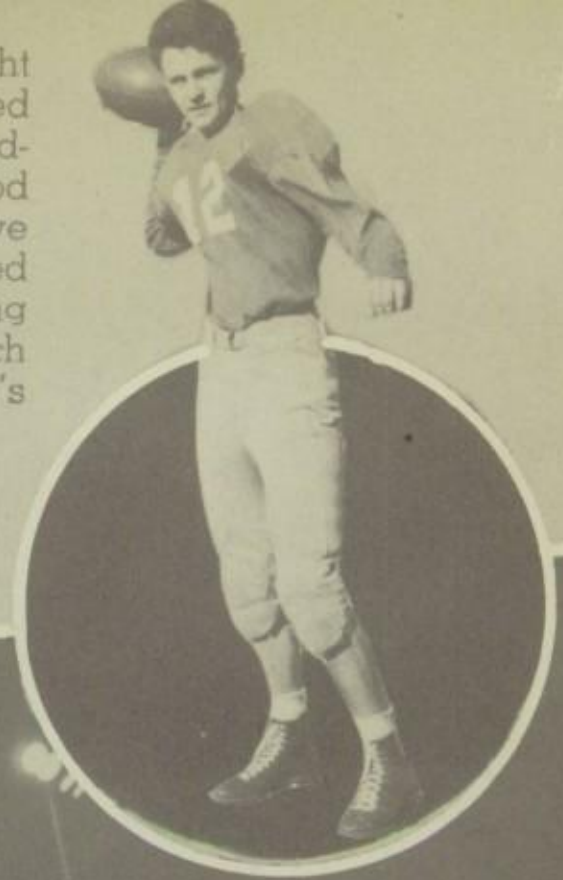

PHILLIP ALLEN

Concluding his final year with the pack, Phillip showed wonderful ability as tackle. An alert and hard-charging man, he earned his place on the squad.

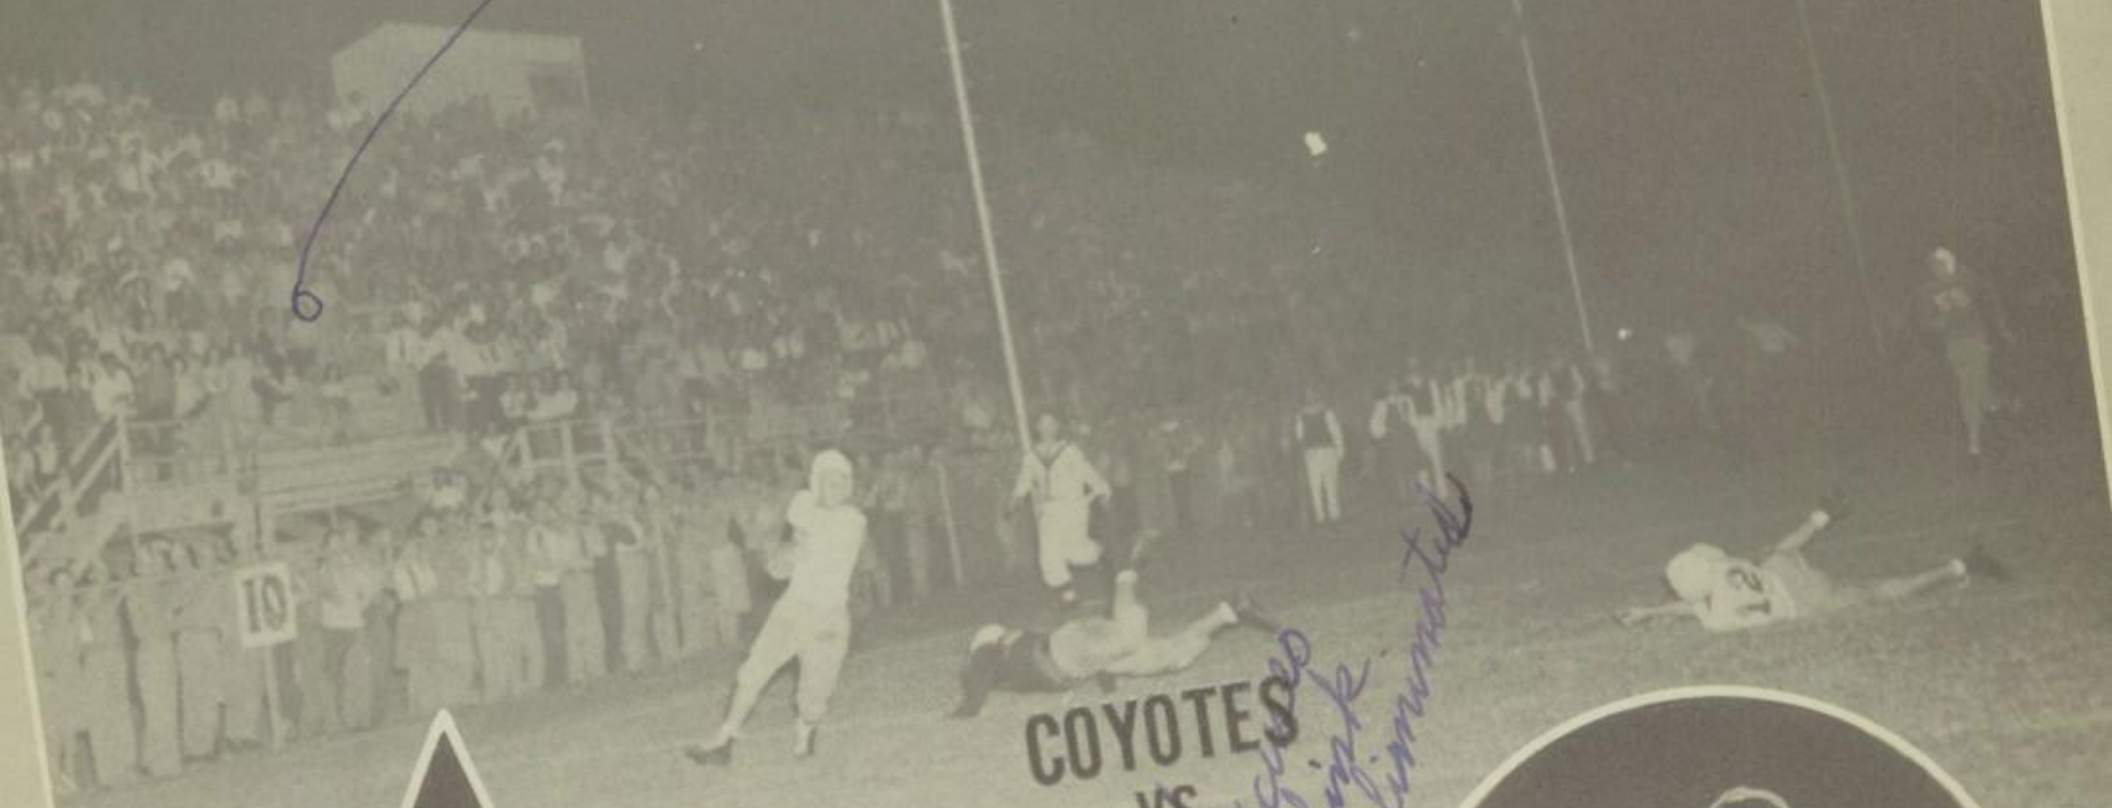

JACK TAYLOR
 spite his handicap of having only one arm, Jack ayed a wonderful season. As a reserve guard, he ercepted two passes for touchdowns.

BUDDY GREGG
 Overcoming his light weight with speed and deception, Buddy turned in a good year as a reserve back. He also showed ability at passing and kicking which will aid next year's team.

GEORGE RAY KEITH
Playing in the back-field, "Frankie" showed fine running ability from the tailback slot. Although not a regular starter, he played in many games.

MAHAN REEME

As a tackle, Reeme proved to be a good substitute lineman. His clowning and hard playing were aids to the team's spirit.

COYOTES VS VERNON

LANE WEST

Despite the fact that he was light for an end, "Mousie" held down that position admirably. He will be back next year to continue his wonderful playing.

JOE DALE PASCHALL

Joe proved to be very adept as a reserve end despite his size. He was fast and aggressive and was a very good substitute lineman.

WAYNE HOLDER

"Les" was one of the most capable backs on the squad. He was very fast and proved outstanding on defense.

COYOTES VS ONLEY

ELVIN KAYS

"T.T." lived up to his nickname, "Tall Timber," as was demonstrated by his excellent pass catching. He was a valuable member of the defense, rushing from his end position.

BILLY PYLE

Billy was the "fifth man" in the Coyote backfield. His long runs were an aid to the team throughout the season, and he was one of the leading scorers.

PAUL HADLEY

Paul held down the position of first-string guard.

Though one of the smallest men on the team, he was one of the best.

GLEN ATKINS

"Jug" proved to be a keen member of the Coyote forward wall at tackle. He saw action in every game during his final season.

BOBBY ROGERS

Rogers was a reserve back whose kicking and blocking showed up at all times. He will be a member of the Coyote pack next year.

GEORGE WASHBURN

"Poochy" was a reserve guard who saw plenty of service this year. He will be a mainstay in next year's line.

DICK LOWE

Playing reserve guard, Lowe was outstanding on defense. Watch for him on the starting lineup in '45.

WILLIAM SAMPSON

One of the heftiest men on the squad, Sampson's lack of experience was the factor that retarded his action. He returns next season.

DONALD STACKS

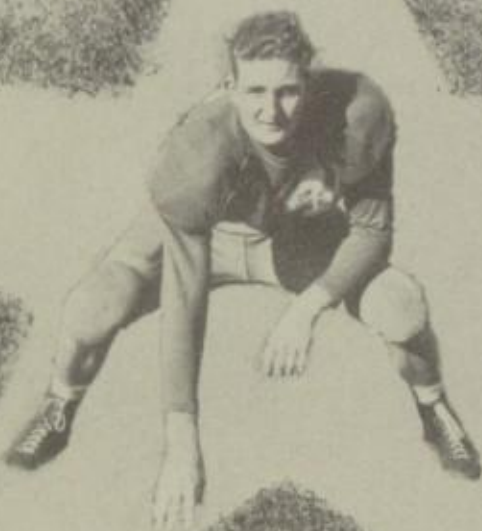

Excellent play on the Rowles entitled Don to come to the Coyotes in the middle of the season. His experience will be valuable to next year's team.

Billy

JOHN PAUL LEAGUE

Being a reserve guard, John learned much this year that will aid next year's team. He is aggressive both on defense and offense.

BILLY JOE BOYD

As an end, "Bullet" saw considerable action this year. His speed and pass snagging were a great help to the team.

ALFRED MILLER

"Little Lord" was a reserve center playing his first year with the Coyotes. Despite his lack of experience, Alfred was a good linesman. He will return next year.

COYOTES VS GAINESVILLE

HARRY FRANKS

Though he did not play regularly, Harry Lee was an aggressive back, crossing the goal line more than once for the Coyotes.

BOB BALLARD

Bob, as a reserve back, could be depended upon to do his part always. He made numerous long gains for the pack this season.

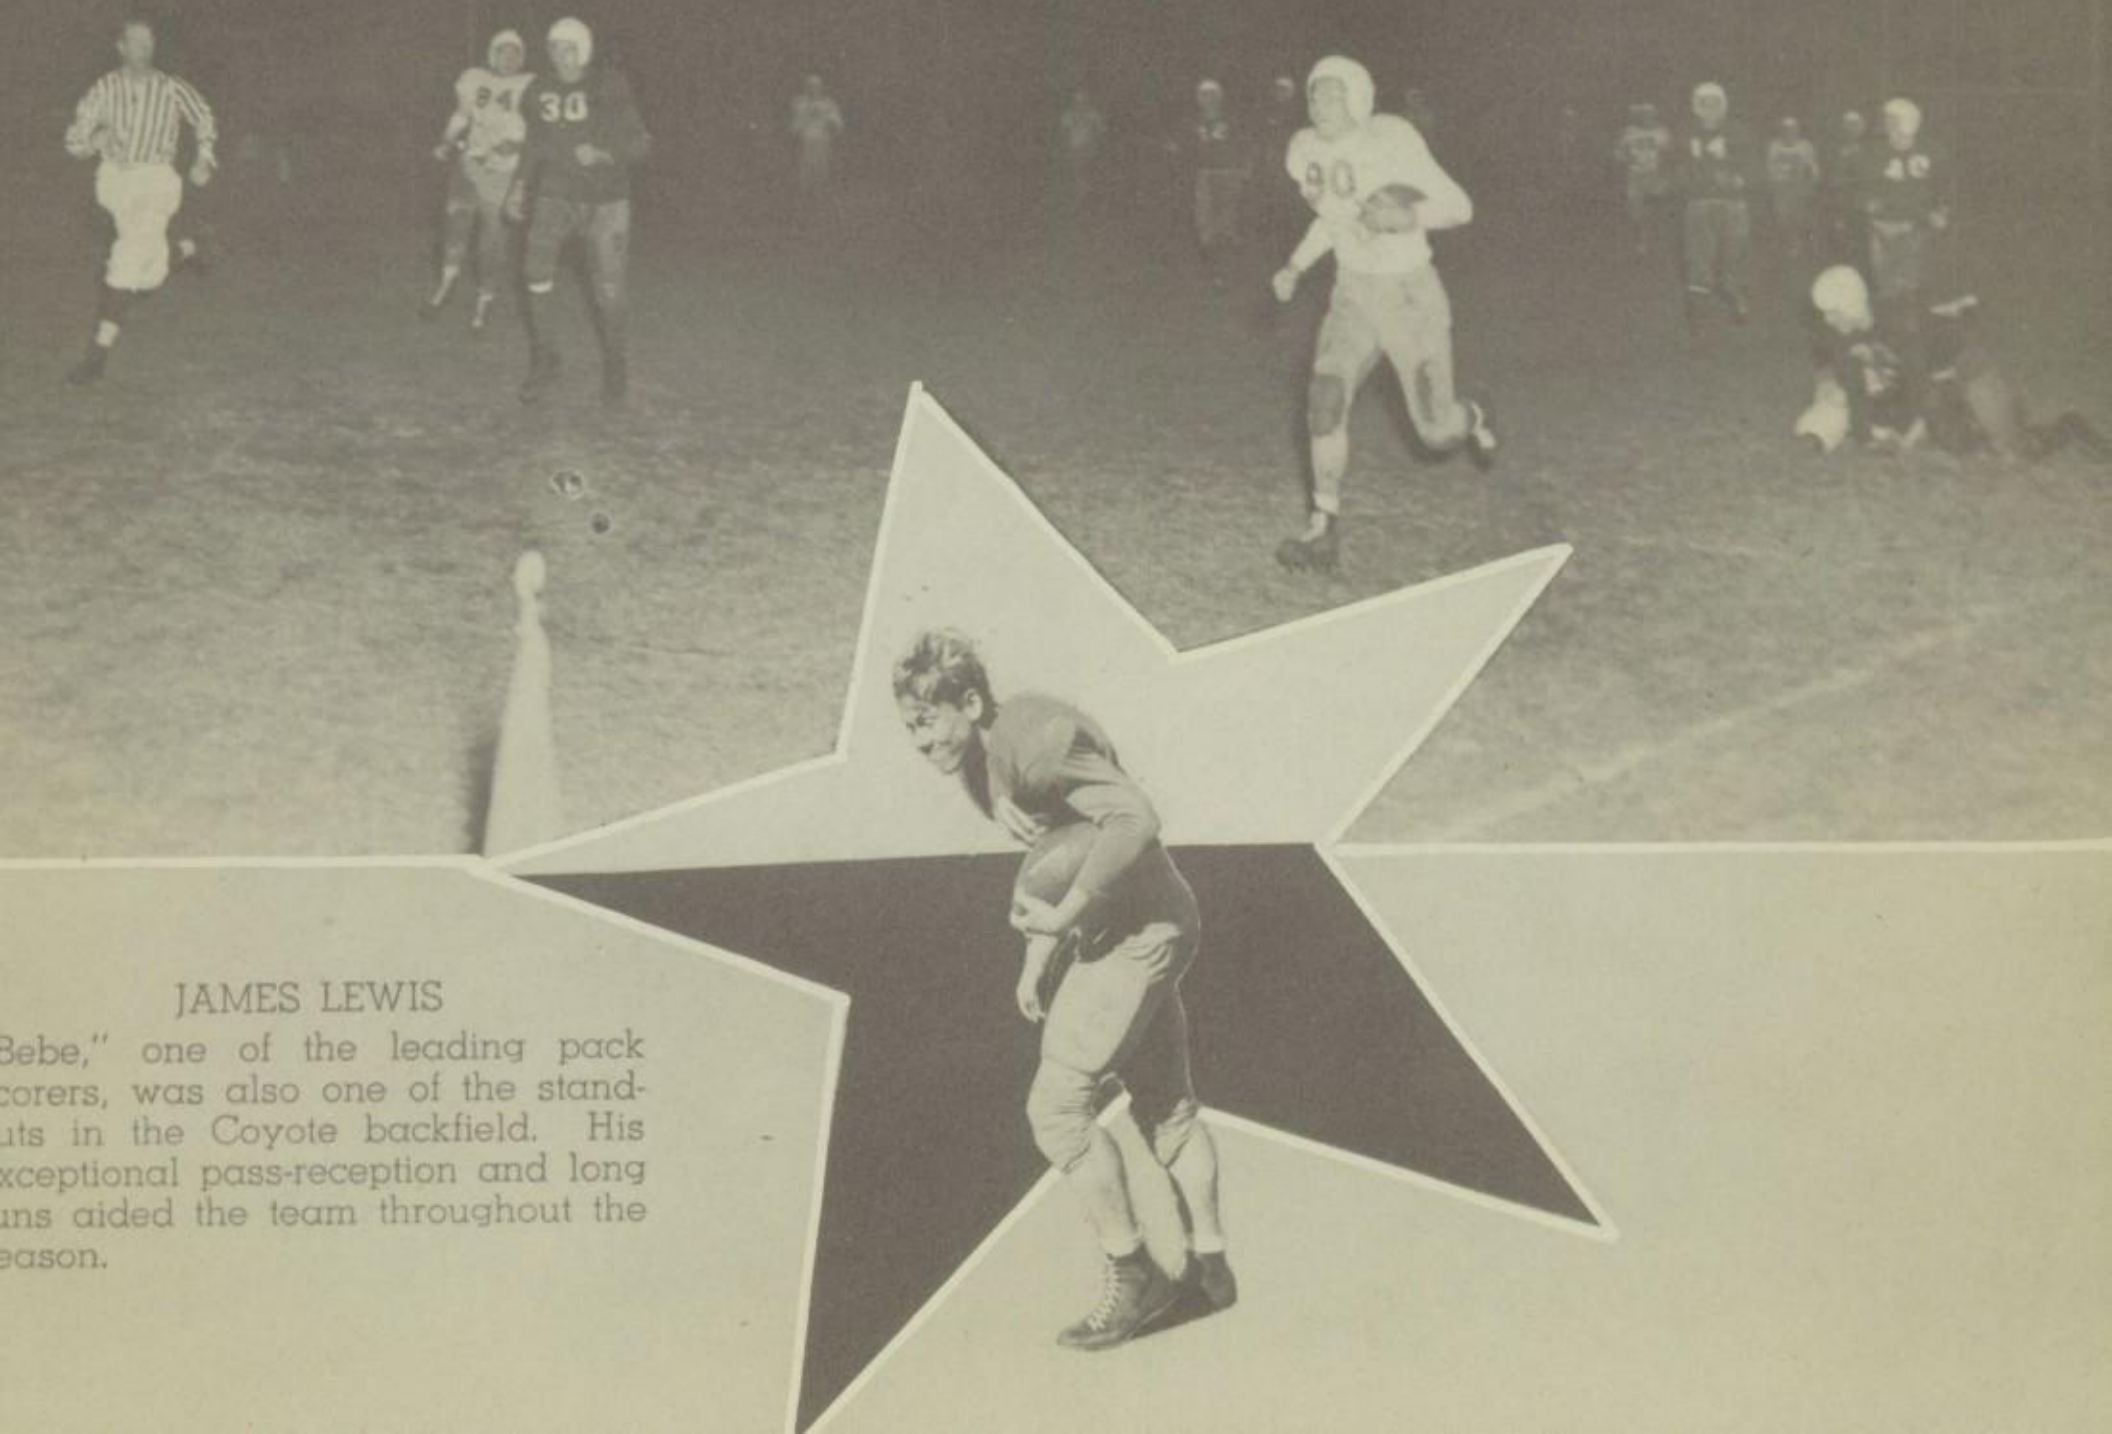

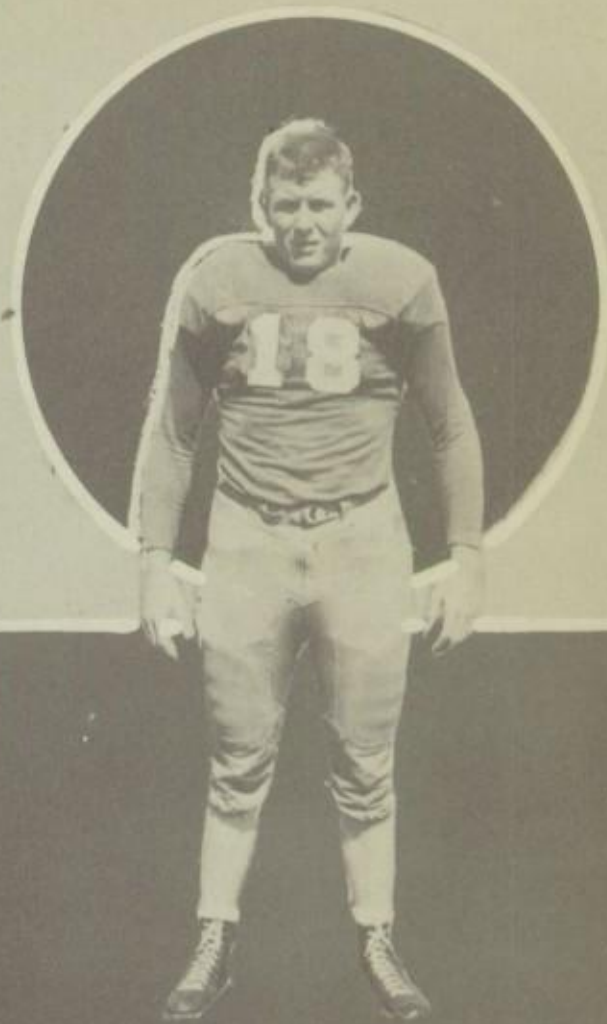

JOE DEAN MIDWELL

After pacing the squad's backs in running and kicking for the first five games of the season, "Smokey" was stricken with typhoid fever. His playing was a great asset, and he will return next year.

RED BROWN

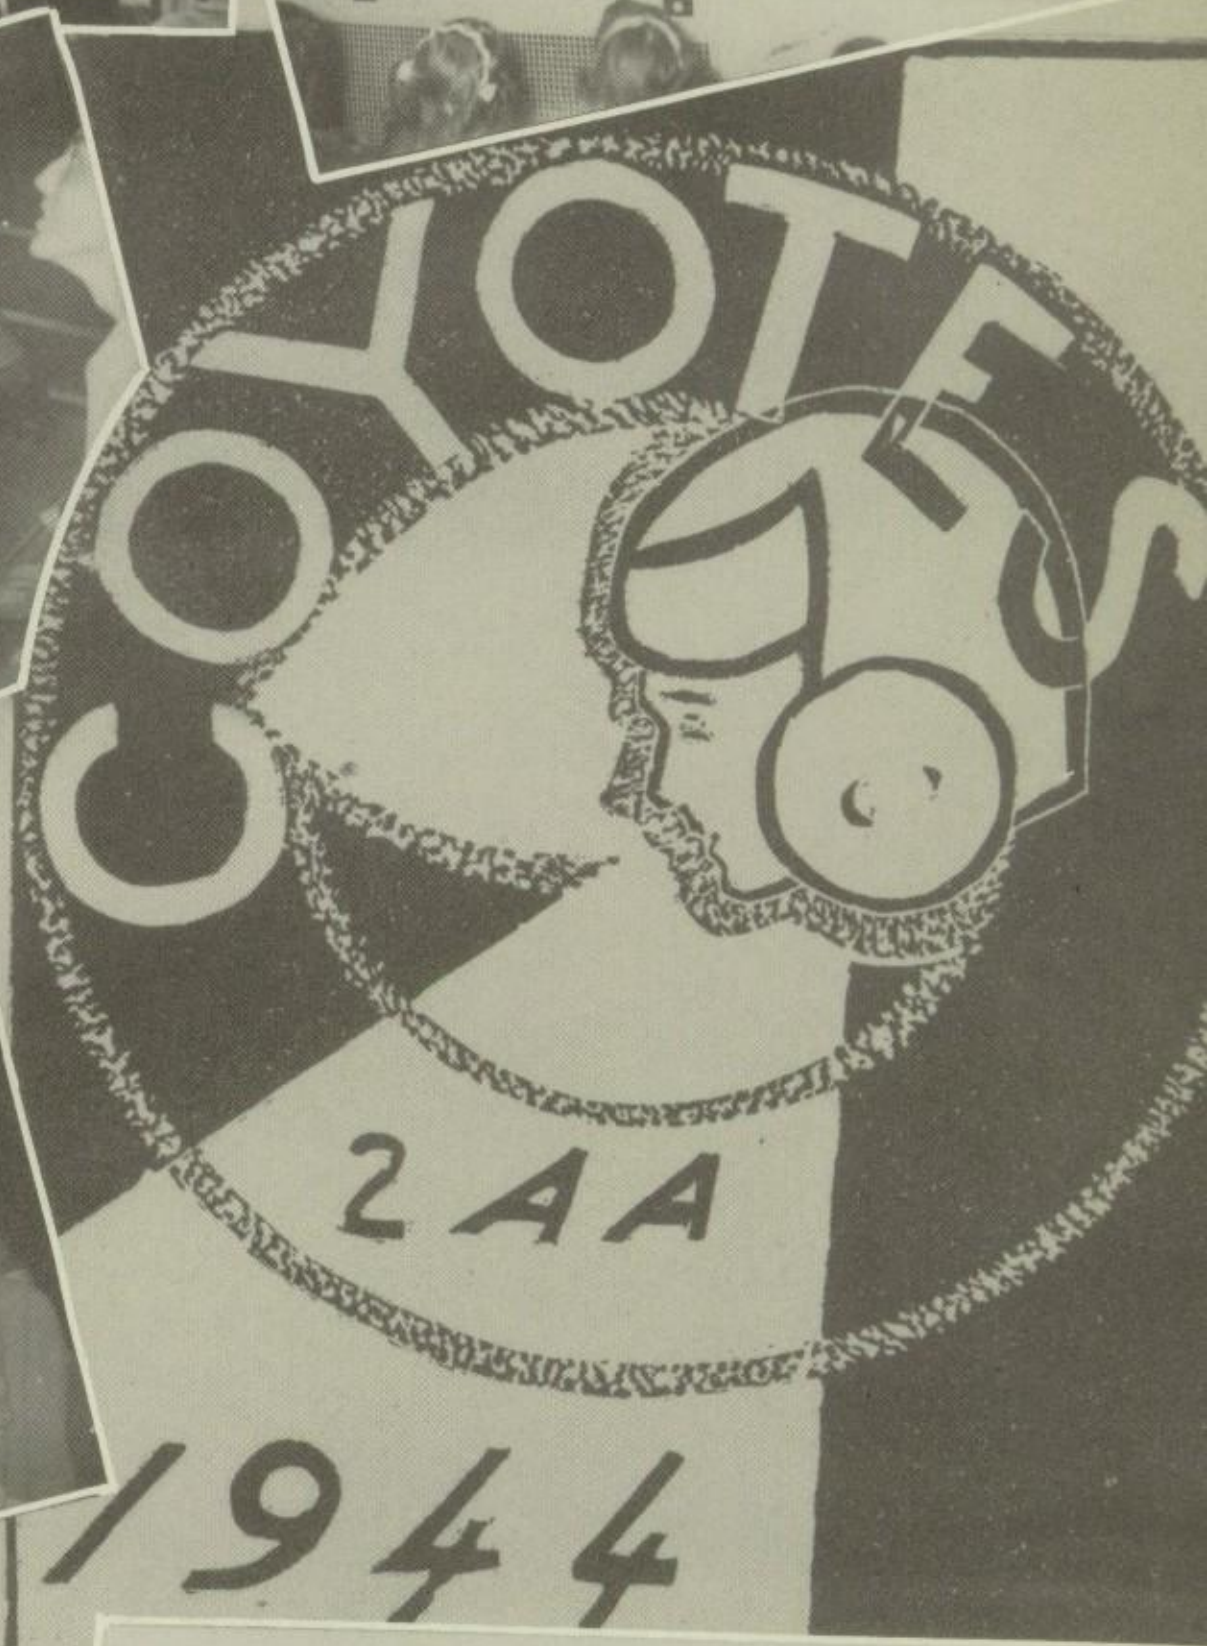

A leg injury, sustained early in the season, limited Red's services as full-back. However, with his performance in the first few games, he demonstrated his ability as a back.

ON TO VICTORY

JAMES LEWIS

"Bebe," one of the leading pack corers, was also one of the standouts in the Coyote backfield. His exceptional pass-reception and long runs aided the team throughout the season.

NOTES

Behind the visible scenes of any noteworthy production, unnoticed by the vast throng of spectators, exist, invariably, efficient working corps, upon whom rests the responsibility of the final performance. However, they are rarely in the spotlight. To all—both students and teachers—who have assisted in making possible the 1945 COYOTE, we extend our thanks. Especially do we acknowledge our gratitude to Mr. O. T. Freeman and the entire Office Staff for their patient help and cooperation. To the teachers of the English department, including THE COYOTE NEWS, whose publicity served to stimulate the necessary interest, we are grateful. Mr. Leroy Stone has our sincere thanks for his constant aid in developing and taking shots and in giving advice.

We acknowledge with appreciation the help of Clyde Bartlett for the football pictures; T. V. Stevens and C. K. Henington Company for the class section; and Ralph McKinlay for the favorites. We are grateful to the Wichita DAILY TIMES for lending help. And finally, to The Steck Company and their representative, Mr. E. B. Winkler, who gave us personal time and help, goes our gratitude.

The editor expresses as a final word the hope that the attempts of the 1945 Staff to present your school activities in movie style have been successful that this production will indelibly mirror in your hearts the scenes which have been unreel from your hours spent in WESH.

Dearest Mrs. Hill,

You said I could write just what I wanted too, and I'm going too. You needn't worry though, as I think you are the nicest teacher up here. I'm sure you won't forget me, as I have to ask a question 3 times before I understand. Here's luck to a swell

Teacher. Love ya lots,
Mary Lou Russell

Dearest Mrs. Hill

Frankly it has really been a pleasure being in your third period class (1944-45). I hope to be in many more classes where the teachers are just like you. Lots of luck to a swell teacher.

Dear Mrs. Hill,

I just want you to know I think you've been one of the best teachers I've had. You have such a nice charming personality that a person can't help but like you. My third period typing class of 44 & 45 will always have a very bright spot in my memory, because of you.

Love to you, always

Mary Loua Kilpatrick

Dear Mrs. Hill,

You said to write the truth, well, I'm going to. I really mean it when I say that you are really a swell teacher. This third period typing class is one of my favorites. The very best to you always.
